JOSEPH LIMING

Joseph (son of Henry and Sarah Deleplaine Liming) has part of his story told in Beer's book, p. 524 and in Thompson's book, p. 522. Joseph was born about 1745 near Philadelphia, PA. In New Jersey, 17$\overset{59}{95}$, Joseph married Alice Applegate who was born in 1745 in Middleton, Monmouth Co., New Jersey. Her father was Hugh Hartshorne. In 1772 Joseph was in Allegheny Co., PA. He served in the Revolutionary War from 1778 - 1783 as a Pennsylvania Ranger from Westmoreland County in Thomas Moore's Company. (Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, Volume 23 pp. 224, 327, Joseph LIMON, LENNON). Joseph was in several severe battles. In 1779 he moved his family near Lexington, KY where he stayed for four years. He then went to Mason Co., KY and later to Johnson Co., KY (from M. D. Liming). In 1806 Joseph came to Clark Township, Brown Co., OH and settled near his father and two brothers. Enroute to a permanent location, the family camped at White Oak Creek near a spring where later the C. G. and P. (Cincinnati, Georgetown, and Portsmouth) Railroad Iron Bridge spanned the creek. (A grandson, Abram Jr., and his son Wesley Liming, later owned land in this area). The Liming families later purchased large tracts of land between White Oak and Hamersville.

Joseph and Alice had 8 children (listed on p. 2 B) Joseph died in 1819 and was buried "under an apple tree" on his own farm in Clark Township. (Thompson's book p. 522). The old Liming family cemetery is approximately 3 miles northwest of Georgetown on Gillette Station Road. It was reported there once were 12 or more inscribed stones in this cemetery, but all were destroyed, leaving only field stones as markers. (from Cemetery Inscriptions of Brown Co., OH, p. 59, Vol. I, 1976, by Linda H. Wilson).

Since there was no stone for Joseph Liming, Virginia Lipps and Ethel Watson requested from the DAR a Revolutionary War monument for Joseph Liming. Being a decendant of Joseph Liming, Kenneth H. Liming signed the application. When the monument came in at the Mt. Orab depot, Kenneth hauled the monument from the station to near the old Liming cemetery off Gillette Station Road. Elmer Watson, and son Delmer Watson, Kenneth Liming and son Neal Liming loaded the monument on a wheelbarrow, along with a bag of sackrete and a shovel. The four pulled and pushed the load about 500 ft. east from Gillette Station Road and approximately 50 feet south over the old C. G. & P. railroad bed and set Joseph Liming's monument in the old Liming family cemetery.

1994 — RWL

Note: Kenneth and Neal Liming are the 6th and 7th generation of Joseph Liming.

Dear Linda,

Thanks so much for your letter. I have been stuck on the Ralston line for some time. Orpha (Ralston) Bingamon Grisham was my husband's gggrandmother.

The census listing you include from Scott Twp. 1850, I have also. Orpha and Richard Collins Grsiham were neighbors although he was quite a bit younger than she was. I do have an estate listing for James Bingamon (Brown Co., OH - Probate Court Records Case # 7681). The Estate Settlement record lists - "...Orpha Bingaman having intermarried with one Collins Grisham." The final account of his estate was filed 1 Feb. 1855.

The census records I have from IL include:

1860 Schuyler Co. IL - Hickory Twp.

Grisham,	R.C.	27	OH
	Orphia	39	OH
	Viola A.	8	OH
	Lilla B.	4	IL
	Eugene	2	IL	(Twin)
	Florence	2	IL	(Twin)
Bingham,	Joseph	19	OH
	A. B.	17	OH
	John	14	OH

1870 Fulton Co., IL - Woodland Twp.

Grisham,	Collins	37	OH
	Ortha	47	OH
	Lillie	14	IL
	Eugene	12	IL
	Florence	12	IL
	Victoria	6	IL

A little background on the Curless/Kennedy connection - Hugh and Margaret (RALSTON) Kennedy had a son, William Bainbridge "Bridge" who married Elizabeth Jane Curless. Their daughter Zanetta Olivia also married a Curless - William Henry. Both of these Curless children's parents were Joseph and Lucy (HOOD) Curless. Joseph and Lucy were my husband's g-g-grandparents. The Curless family came from Brown Co., OH to IL sometime around 1846.

There is a wonderful book I have found by a Linda K. Hubalek entitled "Thimble of Soil". It is in narrative from and is based on her research of Margaret (RALSTON) Kennedy and also Lucy (HOOD) Curless. If you don't have this book, but would like it, let me know and I can give you the address to order one.

In the book, it describes the three widows - Margaret, Lucy, and Phoebe Curless (whose husband John was somehow a cousin to Hugh).

John Curless + Phebe Rumery m. 13 May 1821 B:91 Francis Myers JP

Hugh had died in 1845, Joseph warren Curless died in 1851, and Phoebe Curless was also a widow at the time. Margaret's son Bridge decided to head out west to Kansas and inspired several related families to make the trek out to the frontier in hopes of making a new life.

Margaret agreed to join the party , as did Lucy Curless, but Phoebe made the choice to stay in OH. Margaret arrived in Bluff City, Schuyler Co.,, IL around 1855 and after some months of planning, Margaret - Lucy - children - grandchildren packed up and went to Kansas. They settled there during the roughest time in history for Kansas (Bleeding Kansas) where there was constant battles with different factions over the slavery issue and the Indian issues. Lucy returned, as well as most of the Curless clan, to IL by 1870, but the Kennedy's stayed in Kansas - Douglas Co., around Lawrence, KS.

Linda states in her book that she was able to find a picture of Margaret in a museum in Lawrence, KS. - One of her in front of the homestead in Brown Co., OH and one of her in her old age.

All of this brings me to this:

I can't find Richard Collins and Orpha after the 1870 census in IL. But when I came across a bio in The History of Fulton County on Collins brother, Jerome:

> J.B. Grisham of Astoria born in Brown Co., OH in 1840. His father Richard Grisham was born 7 Mar 1802 in SC. He married Laura Reynolds in OH and they were parents of 19 children. He died in 1879, Mrs. G. is still living in Kansas With the exception of a short residence in KS, Mr. Grisham has been a permanent resident of this township. The family moved from OH in 1855.

I think that the Grishams came west about the same time as Margaret and settled around Bluff City, IL. When the other group headed to Kansas, I think they decided to wait and see what the others would find, And although Jerome stayed in IL. Collins & Orpha, and possibly others headed out to Kansas in 1879 after Richard Sr. died. and they took his mother with them.

Orpha Grisham's son John Bingamon named one of his daughters Orpha (my husband's grandmother). She married John S. Curless, who was a grandson of Joseph and Lucy (HOOD) Curless.

I would very much like to find out more on Orpha's Ralston ancestors, but also I would like to find out when and where she died. I can't find the Grishams listed in the Cemetery records I have of either Fulton or Schuyler Co., IL and have not had the time to investigate where in Kansas they may have gone.

I also have not been able to find where in Brown Co. that James Bingaman would have been buried - in case you might happen to know.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Kathe Curless

Dear Linda,

Thanks for all the information that you sent. It was a GREAT help. I did not make the connection with your name until I read your second letter. You are the one who published the Cemetery Inscriptions of Brown County. I want to say 'Thank you' for your efforts to help preserve our Brown Co. heritage. From my own cemetery visits, I can appreciate what an arduous task cataloging that number of cemeteries was for you. I do have your book.

Do you have any other records (not in the book) for Perry Township or Washington Township in Clermont Co.? It has been passed around among the Curless researchers here in Illinois that 'Someone' (no one can give me a name) visited Brown Co. in the 1960-70s and found the grave of Asher Curless, Sr. and his wife Sarah Osborne. Asher supposedly died ca. 1830 and is the father of Joseph Curless (b:1801 in NJ). I am still looking to find what cemetery Asher lies in - to prove or disprove this fact as well as the name of his wife.

Thank you for the group sheets and census data. In regards to Orpha's brother - Andrew Jackson Ralston - I can not find in Brown Co. census or in Fulton Co., IL census in 1850. Do you know where he was in that census year? dau Josephine b. 15 Oct 1849 OH dau Mary Eugena b. 1 Feb 1851 Fulton Co., IL Kerton Twp.

I am including what I have on the Kennedys, also an excerpt from the Thimble of Soil book that explains the connection between Margaret Ralston Kennedy and Margaret Jane Kennedy (age 3 in the 1850 census and living with Phoebe Rumery Curless).

My interest in the Grishams is a collateral research one in order to try to locate further information on our Orpha. But as to the other 12 children of Richard and Laura Grisham (Grissum) - in the 1850 census, Laura is 45 years old with an 11 mo. old child. I doubt she had more in Illinois at that age. I have them in the 1870 census in Fulton Co. living alone. Next time I am at the library, I will check the 1860 microfilm and see what children were listed in that year. The Jesse (in Scott Twp.) could be a son based on his age, but not the Samuel (Green Twp.)

Some data on Jerome Grisham (s/o Richard and Laura):

1870 Census - Astoria Twp., Fulton Co., IL

38/42	Grisham, Jerome		29	OH
		Elisabeth	28	VA
		John N.	7	IL
		Charles E.	3	IL
		Tolar (male)	1	IL
	Owen,	Elisabeth	73	MD
		B. F. (male)	38	PA

I'm not sure who Elisabeth Owen is. . . if she is related to Jerome or Elisabeth.

h/o Nola Clemmens (ref. d.c. and obit)

I imagine Jerome is probably buried in Astoria, also, as I can't find him elsewhere.

In my marriage CD from Ohio I found these Grishams:

Jesse Grisham m: Lucinda Pool	30 Jul 1842	Brown Co.
Mary Ann Grisham m: Andrew R. McNeil	15 Nov 1836	Ross Co.
George Grissim m: Julia Ann Bowen	25 Jun 1835	Darke Co.
Simeon Grissim m: Mary Pile	17 Feb 1835	Brown Co.
Cynthia Grissum m: George Stansberry	26 Sep 1841	Brown Co.

These could be the older children of Richard and Laura, especially the Cynthia since there are two Stansberrry households near the Grishams - 885/890 Moses and 883/893 John.
mo

In my 1840 Census abstract for Brown Co., I see Richard still resides in Scott Twp. I checked the 1830 census and did not find a Richard Grisham. If you have access to the actual data for 1830, you might want to check - there are these individuals listed: James Gibson, Andrew Gibson, Samuel Gibson, and RICHARD GIBSON. I wonder if it was a name error. Gibson and Grisham could sound alike, depending on how pronounced. Between the 1830 - 50 census might bear out the truth or not that they had 19 kids.

Thanks again,

Kathe Curless

of New Jersey, and settled in the northwestern part of the township on William Lytle's Survey, No 2,939, in the fall of 1801 or spring of 1802. The father was a good type of the hardy pioneer farmer, straightforward, honest and industrious; many of his descendants are still citizens of the township. Matthew Colthar, son of the above, was born in Essex County N. J., in 1777; he married Mary Church in 1816, and by her had the following children: Harrison, Rebecca, Jonathan, Harriet, Eliza, Sarah John P. and Sophia. Mr. Colthar mysteriously disappeared November 9, 1831. He was serving on the jury at Georgetown, and, on being dismissed Saturday, was seen to leave the court house just at dusk as if going home, but he was never heard of afterward. The country was scoured in every direction, but not a trace of him could be found.

John Frazee was one of the first settlers of the township. He located on Survey No. 2,939 in 1803 or 1804, and raised a large family. He was killed by the falling of a tree in 1822. As all of his decendants have left the county, no further account of him can now be learned.

John Brooks came to the township in 1805, and located on Survey No. 2,939, where he remained until his death in 1833. He raised a family of twelve children—three boys and nine girls: Jane, the eldest, was born in 1801, and is now the widow of William Neal, Sr.: John and Elizabeth, twins, were born in April, 1803; John is still a resident of the township, a member of the Methodist Protestant Church, and a highly respected citizen; William, born in 1805, resides on the old homestead; he was for many years a minister in the Baptist Church, and is characterized by his honesty and piety.

William Neal, Sr., was born in 1800, and came to the township when ten years of age, and when twenty years of age married Jane Brooks. He bought his first piece of land of William Duncanson in 1818, and by industry and strict economy he amassed nearly one thousand acres during his lifetime. He raised a family of eight children, five boys and three girls, most of whom still live in the township. His eldest child, Elizabeth, married Jonas Murphy; Julia Ann married John Colthar, and resides in Pike Township; Lewis, the oldest son, married and lives on Survey No. 10,717; John married Sarah J. Kennedy, and lives in Pike Township; William married ~~Miss~~ Susan Dean, and is a farmer and storekeeper; Sarah married Stephen Kennedy; Sanford lives in the old homestead, and Randolph lives just south of the old homestead.

Christian Smith, who settled in the eastern part of the township on Survey No. 3,962, on Miranda's Fork of White Oak, was born in Holland in 1748; his parents died while he was small, and he was placed in a Catholic school to be educated for a priest, but on reaching his majority and finding the church had absorbed all his property, a comfortable patrimony left him by his father, he concluded to embark for the New World. He spent a few years in the coast trade from New York, and in 1790 married Elizabeth McDuffy, of New Jersey, with whom he emigrated to the backwoods of Kentucky, settling at Washington, where he remained a few years. In 1797 or 1798, he located on Robert Lawson's Entry, No. 2,523, near Georgetown, but a few years later, being disturbed by a still-house that was built near him, he traded his land for a farm in this township, on which he moved in 1804, and where he remained until his death in 1832. Joseph Ralston, the veteran school-teacher, who married Mr. Smith's only daughter, Eleanor, in 1813, got most of his education from his father-in-law, who in education was far in advance of his neighbors. Mr. Smith brought the first sheep to this section of the country, and for some years was obliged to keep them in a pen winter and summer to protect them from wolves.

Joseph Ralston was born at Pittburgh December 6, 1793, and in 1794 came with his father (who was a blacksmith in Wayne's army) to Manchester, where he remained until 1807, when he removed to White Oak, and settled at the mouth of Miranda's Fork, on the northwest corner of Entry No. 901. There he resided until his marriage with Eleanor Smith, September 5, 1813, after which he resided on the Smith farm until his death, February 18, 1869. When twenty-eight or thirty years of age, his back was injured at a log rolling, and he was afterward unable to do hard work; he taught school with eminent success for forty years. He had three sons and seven daughters, but three of the latter died while small. The sons were Christian Smith, Andrew Jackson and Oliver Perry, and the girls were Orphia, Zorilda, Almira and Matilda Jane. Christian was born November 4, 1814, married Sarah Martin in 1836, removed to Ripley County, Ind., in January, 1842, and died September 27, 1869. Andrew was born September 8, 1818, married Nancy J. Perry in 1839, moved to Fulton County, Ill., in 1848 and died in February, 1875.

Samuel M. Blair was born near Knoxville, Tenn., October 24, 1798, and at the age of eleven years removed to Brown County, Ohio, with his father, who settled on the farm now owned by W. P. Macklem, two miles north of Georgetown. In 1821, when twenty-three years old, Mr. Blair settled on J. Watts' Entry. No. 3,781, one mile northeast of Hamersville. He was twice married, first to Matilda Tweed, by whom he had three children—Amanda, Jane and Matilda. Amanda is the widow of Samuel Wilkes, and still lives in Hamersville, the "good Samaritan" of the village. Mr. Blair's second wife was Mary Ann Davis, by whom he had ten children—four boys and six girls, viz., Marcus, Lafayette and Leander, who live in Illinois; C. Columbus, the Clerk of the Court of Brown County; Samuel Warren, the ticket agent at Hamersville; America, Martha, Almira, Minerva, Eliza and Sarah, the three eldest girls being dead. Mr. Blair, after filling most of the township offices, including six years as Justice of the Peace, was in 1857 elected County Commissioner, which position he creditably filled six years. He was a consistent Christian, and for many years was an Elder of the church. He died in 1871, and was buried in the cemetery at Unity Church; his wife survived him ten years, dying July 24, 1881.

Henry Van Deman settled on Survey No. 3,024 about the year 1806. He had a large family; Jacob settled on Survey No. 3,862, and when Scott Township was formed his house was in that township, although the larger part of his farm was in Clark. He was a farmer, but also preached for a number of years, first as a New Light, then as a Methodist, and lastly as a Campbellite. Benjamin married Susan Shick in 1842, and settled on Survey No. 3,781, where he raised four children—Daniel, who now occupies the old homestead; John, Mary and Barton S. George settled south of Benjamin, on the same survey. He was a preacher of the Campbellite Church, and raised a large family, who, after his death, emigrated to Illinois.

Robert Kennedy was born in Butler County, Penn., and settled just north of Hamersville in Brown County, Ohio, in 1811, where he remained until his death. He was a man of strict integrity and more than ordinary ability. He took an active interest in the early politics of the township, and for many years was a Justice of the Peace. He raised five children, viz., Thomas, who was three times married, and died of cholera at the old homestead at the age of forty years. He and his wife were found dead in the morning, having died alone during the night; James, a retired physician of Clermont County; John C., a retired physician, now residing at Felicity; Ella, the wife of S. B. Smith, and William H., who raised a large family, all of whom are dead.

George Flick was born in Butler County, Penn., June 11, 1785, and in 1806 married Jane Kennedy. They came to Ohio in 1811, and settled where Penny, the former a native of Kentucky, of Welsh descent, and the latter a native of Pennsylvania, of Irish descent. Our subject received but a limited education in the schools of his township, and early commenced the work of a farmer, in which occupation he has since continued. He was married in 1848, to Martha A. Fiscus, a native of Brown County. They have six children, viz.: Florence, Commodore, Iselina, John, Clayton and Robert Lee. Mr. Penny is a practical and hard-working farmer, owning 138 acres of good land, which he has accumulated by his personal efforts. He has never speculated, or traded, but has made his substance by hard work and honest economy.

ALLEN PENNY, farmer, P. O. Hamersville, Ohio, was born in Brown County October 15, 1822. He is the son of Lewis and Hannah Penny, the farmer a native of Kentucky, of French descent, the latter a native of Virginia, of Welsh descent. Our subject received a limited education in the log schoolhouses of his day, and early commenced working on the farm, having chosen that occupation for his life work and having since followed it. In that honorable calling, he has met with good success, and is now the owner of a good farm of 140 acres. He was married in 1848, to Mary A. Hester, a native of Kentucky, by whom he has had six children, viz.: Lewis, Mary J., Caroline, Emma, Laurinda and Lydia Ann. Mr. Penny is in politics a Democrat; he has never aspired to official honors, but has served as a School Director from a sense of duty. He is an industrious and energetic farmer, and is considered by his fellows one of the best citizens of his township.

Richey

W. O. PERKINS, carpenter, Hamersville, born in Clermont Co., Ohio, May 28, 1830. He is a son of Aaron and Mary (Ricey) Perkins, the former a native of Kentucky, of German ancestry, and the latter of Ohio, of German-Irish parentage. Mr. Perkins received his education in Clermont County, and has been a carpenter by occupation through life. One year, he was the proprietor of a hotel in Hamersville, and for nine years was Postmaster of the village. Mr. Perkins was united in marriage, in 1854, to to Paulina Flick. They have an adopted daughter, Cora. Mr. Perkins and wife are members of the M. E. Church. His grandfather, Matthew Perkins, settled in this county in 1805, when this county was almost a wilderness.

ADAM POWELL, farmer, P. O. Hamersville, was born in Bracken County, Ky., December 23, 1808. His parents were Joseph and Elizabeth (Dillman) Powell, natives of Pennsylvania, and of German descent. His early education was obtained in the old log schoolhouses of Pennsylvania and Ohio, and was rather limited. In 1816, he accompanied his parents to Brown County, Ohio, where he has since resided. He has been engaged in agricultural pursuits all of his life, and now owns 200 acres of excellent land. Politically, Mr. Powell has always been an ardent Democrat. He was united in marriage, in 1831, to Fannie Tatman, a daughter of Joshua Tatman, an honored pioneer of this place, and at the time of his death (April, 1882) was aged one hundred and two years—probably the oldest man in Brown County. Twelve children were born to this union, all of whom lived to the maturer years of manhood and womanhood, and were married. Mrs. Powell departed this life in the fall of 1839. Mr. Powell was again married, to Nancy Tatman, who has borne him six children, four daughters and two sons. The greater portion of this family are members of the Christian Church.

O. P. RALSTON, farmer, P. O. Hamersville. Oliver Perry Ralston, youngest son of Joseph and Eleanor (Smith) Ralston, was born in Brown County, Ohio, March 11, 1824. As was common in those days, he received only a common school education, but such was his love and talent for mathematics, that at one time he was considered the best mathematician in the county. He was raised on a farm and has followed that occupation without interruption up to the present time. On April 27, 1844, he was married to Martha Ann, youngest daughter of John and Catharine Pitzer, also a native of this county. There were born to them six boys and two girls, viz.: James Polk, who married Permele Jacobs, and is now a citizen of Colorado Springs, Colo. He served three years as Principal of the Deaf Mute Institute of Colorado, and is now prospecting and mining among the Rocky Mountains Sarepta Jane, wife of Dr. R. B. McCall, of New Hope; Thomas Hamer, who was born April 27, 1849, and went to Kansas in the fall of 1868, and died of typhoid fever October 8, 1871, in Livingston County Mo.; Lewis Warren, born January 7, 1851, read law with Marshal & Thomas, was admitted to the bar in 1872, married Lutitia Case, and now resides in Hamersville; Almira Evaline, born October 28, 1852, still single; Eugene Archimedas, born July 12, 1856, and after spending two years in the South, is now farming the old homestead; Edgar Lee, born July 7, 1860, and now in Crystal Basin, Colo., silver mines; Orlando Frank, born August 4, 1862, also in the prospecting and mining business. Mr. Ralston's public career is as follows: Was appointed School Examiner in 1854, elected County Surveyor in 1857, and re-elected in 1860, elected Justice of the Peace in 1864, served as Township Clerk during the latter part of the war, and was treasurer of the fund raised by Clark Township to fill her quota of men. He was elected, in 1880, to represent Clermont and Brown Counties in the State Board of Equalization. Martha A., first wife of O. P. Ralston, died of consumption February 9, 1866, aged thirty-nine years and eight days. Mr. Ralston was married, April 17, 1867, to Ann J. (Brownfield) Stratton, daughter of James and Mary Brownfield, and widow of William B. Stratton, also a native of Brown County. She had one child—George W. Stratton, who was a member of the Forty-ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and was a prisoner at Andersonville. Mr. Ralston still surveys and is often called to settle disputes, and his honesty and known ability make his decisions nearly always final. He has been a Notary Public for the last twelve years. He is one of the most prominent Odd Fellows of the county, was D. D. G. M. in 1871–72, when the district included Adams, Brown and a part of Clermont Counties, represented this district in the Grand Lodge of Ohio in 1877–78–79–80, and was Grand Guardian in 1881. He is noted as one of the strong friends of education in the county, although not a regular teacher, having only taught three or four quarters, but has always been found giving the cause aid and support when most needed. He was a member of the Patrons of Husbandry, represented Brown County four years in the State Grange, and was the first Master of Clark Grange. He was the first Odd Fellow in Clark Township, and his kind heart prompts him to be first always in the relief of distress. (For parentage, see Clark Township History.)

ROBERT D. RICE, farmer, P. O. Hamersville, son of Michael and Lutitia (Ham) Rice, was born in Bracken County, Ky., February 27, 1837, of Welsh descent. He was raised on a farm and in the low state of schools in that part he only attended school six weeks in his life. He was married, December 8, 1859, to Hannah M., daughter of Joseph Metzger, of Lewis Township. They have had three children, viz., Joseph H., Elijah F. (died when eight years old) and Susanna. He came to Ohio in 1862, and to Clark Township in 1879. He owns a beautiful farm of 100 acres near Hamersville. He and wife are members of the Christian Church, in which he has been Superintendent of Sabbath schools for the last ten years. He is a model man for piety, morality and sobriety—never in his life having sworn an oath, tasted intoxicating liquor, kept lewd company or gambled in any shape or form.

JOSEPH PERRY RICHARDS, farmer, P. O. Georgetown, was born on the farm which he now owns and where he resides. His father, Charles Richards, was born in Virginia January 7, 1804, and died in Ohio in 1871. His mother, Elizabeth (Connell) Richards, was born in Ohio December 6, 1809, and is still living. His grandfather, Richards, came to Ohio in 1829, and settled in Brown County. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. The subject of this sketch was educated in the common schools of his native county, and having chosen farming for an occupation, has since followed it with marked success. He is a Democrat in politics, and for four years was Township Trustee. He is President of the County Agricultural Society, and has occupied that position for five years. He has been twice married, first to Rebecca C. Norris, of this township, who died in 1863, leaving three children—William, Charles C. and Marion Lee. His second wife, whom he married in 1867, was Amanda Berry, daughter of Samuel Berry, of Pleasant Township. By her he has one child—Samuel F. Mr. and Mrs R. are both members of the M E. Church.

Mother and son are train victims

Services were held Monday from the Thompson Funeral Home, Mt. Orab, for Mrs. Linda Eileen McKenzie Lucas, 18, and her son, Shane, 17 months of Georgetown, Rt. 2, who were killed Thursday morning when their auto was hit by a train at the Oak Street crossing in Mt. Orab.

Burial was held in the Confidence Cemetery, Georgetown.

Mrs. Lucas and her son were crossing the Oak St. crossing (one block west of the US 68 crossing) when their auto was struck by an eastbound locomotive. Their car was carried 320 feet down the tracks and demolished. There are no flasher lights at the crossing, but visibility is good in both directions.

Mrs. Lucas died at the scene and her son was dead on arrival at the county hospital.

Surviving are Mrs. Lucas's husband, John P. Lucas; a stepson, Leslie Lee Lucas; sister, Brenda McKenzie, Ripley; brother, Randy McKenzie, of Ripley; mother, Emma McKenzie, Ripley and father, Thomas McKenzie, of Mt. Orab. Also surviving is the paternal grandparent, Mrs. Lee Lucas, of Georgetown, Rt. 2.

and Carolyn (Riggins) Valentine. Anna died on February 21, 1876 in Mason County, Kentucky. They had the following children all born in Mason County, Kentucky: John William, born October 12, 1867; Charles Richard, born October 4, 1869; Edward Stephen (my g-grandfather), born September 15, 1871; George Washington, born October 31, 1873; and Anna Sarah Malinda, born December 26, 1875. Edward Stephen married Lillie May Flummer in Eureka, Kansas on December 1, 1896. Lillie May Flummer was born in Vanceburg, Kentucky, the daughter of Allen Alexander and Louisa Mae (Gamble) Flummer. I believe that John Mattingly's father was John Townley Mattingly, born in 1782 in Pennsylvania, and that his father was John Townly Mattingly born in 1760 in Pennsylvania. Any information on the Valentine would also be greatly appreciated.

LUCAS - I am the great granddaughter of Emanuel and Emeline Lucas. I am trying to prove my lineage on my father's side. My grandfather, Jesse Lucas, was born in Maysville, Kentucky, where he lived until 1916. He and his wife, Maysel, four children and his mother, Emeline moved. He resided in Portsmouth, Ohio until his death at age 41, in Scioto County, Ohio in 1927 from a train accident. He left wife, Maysel, children, Lawrence Betty, Carrie Paul, Jesse, Jr. and sisters Hannah Malone, Lizzie Mosley, Alevia Harris, and Jane Harris, brothers, Thomas Lucas of Steece, Ohio and John Lucas of Maysville, Kentucky. My great grandmother, Emeline Lucas was born in 1840 in Virginia. Great grandfather, Jesse Lucas was born ca. 1840 in Maysville, Kentucky. I am seeking information on his birth and death. Any information on this family will be appreciated.

E. LUCAS, 91, PASSES b. ca 1863

ELLIOTT LUCAS, 91, one of Bracken county's oldest citizens died Wednesday, Jan. 27,1954 at his home at Willow where he resided with his son, Eddie and family. Death was attributed to the infirmities of age.

Born during the administration of President Abraham Lincoln Mr Lucas was the son of James Lucas.

He was united in marriage to Vinnie Ann Mains, who died in 1918.

Five sons survive; They are John and Alonza of Brooksville, Eddie of Willow,* Willard of Germantown, and Roy Lucas of Brownsville, Texas. He also leaves 19 grand children.

Services at 2 p.m. Friday, at the Powersville Christian Church were conducted by the Rev. Sherwood EVANS, pastor. Moore and Parker Funeral Home in charge of Burial in the Powersville Cemetery.

* might be Willard.

Dear Mrs. Wilson;

In the recent issue of the Brown County Genealogical news, I noticed that you have the name Reynolds added to your names that appeared in the first issue. In the first issue I received, Lucas was also listed under your name.

Susan or Sussanna Reynolds was my husbands great, great grandmother. Her husband was Zephaniah B. Winters. Her father and mother were Stephen and Barbara(Northrup) Reynolds. From the DAR Lineage record p115 V65 I have the names of the brothers and sisters of Stephen Reynolds.

Parents: Joseph Reynolds Born 7-9-1749 Exeter Rhode Island
Died Brown County Ohio 12-25-1823
Married Experience Davis-10-31-1771
B. 4-9-1751 N. Kingston R.I.

Marcena L. Breth 232 Genmont Ave. Columbus Ohio 43214, who belongs to the Brown County Society is related to the Reynolds family through Roxana and Terry Womacks. I wrote to her after I received the first news letter. She had thought that Joseph Reynolds the father and revolutionary soldier from Albany County New York was born in New York State. In Beers History of Brown County it says New York. I am tfying to go back farther with Joseph and Experience (Davis) Reynolds but I don't whether to try Rensselaer County New York or Rhode Island.

Stephen and Barabara (Northrup) Reynolds had several children and according to Beers Livingston County Ill. history they came here in 1833. Susan and her husband Zephaniah lived in Brown County in 1850 with their three sons, James, Zephaniah, and Stephen, according to the 1850 census. In 1853 they were in Livingston County as Zephaniah bought land. In 1854 he sold the land. The 1860 census of Brown County shows Zephaniah back in Ohio and married again. Susan died in 1859. I'am trying to find the parents of Zephaniah.

The 1850 census of Brown County shows another Zephaniah about 60 years old, wife Sarah. This man could be the father but I have no proof Beers history page 231 lists a Joseph B. Winters.as son of Sarah and Zepheniah Winters. Susans husband died in 1893aand is buried in the Fincastle cemetery near Joseph B. and his wife. I don't know if the two men were brothers. Zepheniah's second wife was Margaret Edington. I'm wondering if there is any probabte record of heirs for the elder Zepheniah or (Zephaniah). He was alive in 1850 but I don't know about 1860.

On to the Lucus name. Viola Lucus or Lucas Winters was my husbands grandmother. To quote Beers History Livingston County under the caption Edwin R Lucus. "John B. Lucus, grandfather of the above was born in Virginia, thence removed to Kentucky and later to Brown county, Ohio, where he was one of the early settles. In 1833 he removed with his family to Vermilion county, Ill., where, also, he was one of the first white settles. His son, John H. father of Edwin R. Lucus, was born in Brown county, Ohio, January 4, 1820 and from his fourteenth year his life has been spent in Ill. with the exception of one year. Viola Lucus Winters was Edwin's daughter

From Beers History of Brown County page 532 I found that John Lucas married Margaret Harper and had a son John who married Sarah Smith and went to Ill. One of my husbands great uncles was named Harper Lucus It says that John Lucas father was Robinson Lucus and he had fifteen children who grew up. Does your Lucas line come from Robinson? I would like to know where in Virginia he came from and when they came to Brown County. There is a John B Lucas's record of being in the War of 1812 from Kentucky but I don't know if it is the same man.

How much are the reprinted Histories of Brown County. If they aren't to much I would like one.

I have enjoyed the news letters and I hope you can make sense of all my ramblings.

Sincerely,

Eleanor M. Winters

Mrs. Stewart Paynter Jr. (left), representing the Daughters of the American Revolution, and Virginia Woolley, president of the Howell Historical Society, participate in the dedication of a new tombstone at cemetery off Peskin Road for Revolutionary War soldier Abner Thorp. Behind them is an honor guard of Veterans of Foreign War representatives Joe Higgins (left) and Ed Pawlak.

New tombstone put on grave of Revolutionary War soldier

Community Staff Report

Through the efforts of one of his descendants, a new stone has been placed on the grave of a Revolutionary War soldier.

On Sunday, members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9691, the Howell Historical Society and Mayor Wayne A Stewart Jr. dedicated the stone which marks the grave of Abner Thorp, who is buried in the Captain Matthews cemetery, off Peskin Road, Howell Township.

"It went very well," said Margaret Theresa Forsberg, one of Thorp's descendents.

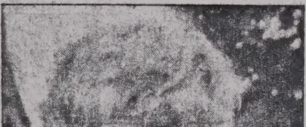
Mrs. Forsberg, of Point Pleasant, had been working with the Veterans Administration in Washington to get the original stone, which had been broken and worn down, replaced.

The VA provides grants for the upkeep of veterans' cemeteries throughout the country.

"We worked on it for years," said Virginia Woolley, president of the Howell Historical Society. "They're very difficult to get."

But it was Mrs. Forsberg, the researcher for the historical group, who finally was able get the VA to help.

"The reason I got it is I'm an active member of the DAR," Mrs. Forsberg said.



MARGARET FORSBERG
Thorp descendant

Thorp, who was born on Feb. 22, 1731, in Orange County, N.Y., served as a quartermaster and translator for Gen. George Washington during The Revolution. Thorp conducted most of Washington's French correspondence, Mrs. Forsberg said.

"He was a personal friend of George Washington," she said.

Although Thorp was born in New York, he owned a farm on Peskin Rcad and used the land as a summer residence, Mrs. Forsberg said.

"You know those signs that say 'Washington slept here.'? Well, Washington ate here," she said, "on more than one occasion."

Thorp and his first wife, Eunice Brown, of Woodbridge, had 14 children, said Mrs. Forsberg, whose maiden name is Brown. After Eunice died in 1801, Thorp married Anna Layton, Thorp died on Dec. 4, 1812, and was buried on his land.

In addition to Thorp's role in the Revolutionary War, he also played an important part in the development of the area's agriculture.

About a quarter mile from where Thorp is buried is the site of a former marl pit. Thorp was among the first farmers in the area to use marl as a fertilizer. Marl, which is a mixture of clay, sand, limestone and shell fragments, was used for soils deficient in lime.

Thorp is buried in what is believed to be the third oldest cemetery in the township, Mrs. Woolley said. The cemetery was established in 1801.

The oldest cemetery is believed to be the Quaker Burial Ground, located off Squankum- Yellowbrook Road, which was established in 1778; followed by the Bethesda Cemetery, located off Wycoff Mills Road, which was established in 1780.

New tombstone put on grave of Revolutionary War soldier

Community Staff Report

Through the efforts of one of his descendants, a new stone has been placed on the grave of a Revolutionary War soldier.

On Sunday, members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9691, the Howell Historical Society and Mayor Wayne A Stewart Jr. dedicated the stone which marks the grave of Abner Thorp, who is buried in the Captain Matthews cemetery, off Peskin Road, Howell Township.

"It went very well," said Margaret Theresa Forsberg, one of Thorp's descendents.

Mrs. Forsberg, of Point Pleasant, had been working with the Veterans Administration in Washington to get the original stone, which had been broken and worn down, replaced.

The VA provides grants for the upkeep of veterans' cemeteries throughout the country.

"We worked on it for years," said Virginia Woolley, president of the Howell Historical Society. "They're very difficult to get."

But it was Mrs. Forsberg, the researcher for the historical group, who finally was able get the VA to help.

MARGARET FORSBERG
Thorp descendant

"The reason I got it is I'm an active member of the DAR," Mrs. Forsberg said.

Thorp, who was born on Feb. 22, 1731, in Orange County, N.Y., served as a quartermaster and translator for Gen. George Washington during The Revolution. Thorp conducted most of Washington's French correspondence, Mrs. Forsberg said.

"He was a personal friend of George Washington," she said.

Although Thorp was born in New York, he owned a farm on Peskin Road and used the land as a summer residence, Mrs. Forsberg said.

"You know those signs that say 'Washington slept here.'? Well, Washington ate here," she said, "on more than one occasion."

Thorp and his first wife, Eunice Brown, of Woodbridge, had 14 children, said Mrs. Forsberg, whose maiden name is Brown. After Eunice died in 1801, Thorp married Anna Layton, Thorp died on Dec. 4, 1812, and was buried on his land.

In addition to Thorp's role in the Revolutionary War, he also played an important part in the development of the area's agriculture.

About a quarter mile from where Thorp is buried is the site of a former marl pit. Thorp was among the first farmers in the area to use marl as a fertilizer. Marl, which is a mixture of clay, sand, limestone and shell fragments, was used for soils deficient in lime.

Thorp is buried in what is believed to be the third oldest cemetery in the township, Mrs. Woolley said. The cemetery was established in 1801.

The oldest cemetery is believed to be the Quaker Burial Ground, located off Squankum- Yellowbrook Road, which was established in 1778; followed by the Bethesda Cemetery, located off Wycoff Mills Road, which was established in 1780.

HUSBAND Phillip Henrich KREBS-639
NOTES:
Indiana Historical Society Bulletin - 1976. Name was Henrich Krebs and apparently was later "Americanized" to Henry Crabs. He came to this country from Germany about the middle of the 18th century. He lived "east of the mountains" probably in eastern Penn. He spent a few years in Maryland and thence to Washington Co, Penn. When that area was being settled by many early settlers with Virginia warrants. Recently discovered records from Dryland Union Church, Nazareth Township, Northhampton Co, Penn. give the birth & baptisimal dates. Henry & Sarah may have married in Germany but more likely Pennsylvania.
Sarah Keller died March 11, 1808; 71 yrs 9 mos.
Info from Lida Flint Harshman, Box 556, Mineral Ridge, OH 44440.

WIFE Sarah KELLER-640
NOTES:
Records are unclear if Sarah Keller was from Germany, although they indicate her husband was an "immigrant".

To the Honorable the Secretary of War of the United States.

On oath administered to him according to law, before the Honorable the Circuit court of Bracken state of Kentucky on this 7th day of July 1818, the petition of James Rice a citizen of said county and state, aged 63 years, most respectfully represents that being desirous of serving his country in her struggle for independence all that lay in his power, he joined the Army of the United States by voluntary enlistment in July 1775. for two years. at King William Court House under Captain Holt Richardson of Colonel Spotswood's being the 7th Virginia Regiment of continental ~~establishment~~ Regiment, Gl. Woodfords Brigade; from the Rendezvous was ordered with said Richardsons company to Williamsburg Va. then commanded by Colonel Spotswood. The first action engaged in, was in the driving of Dunmore from Gwinn's Island, after this encamped at Paint top on the Rappahannock River until Oct. following, thence ordered with the whole of the command to York Town Virginia where he performed garrison duty a few weeks only, when he was remanded to Williamsburgh, where he with the rest of the Troops stored his arms, ammunition &c in the United States Arsenal of that place, thence ordered direct, under Colonel Clanahan, to take up winter quarters in Philadelphia, during which winter (75-76) was in several skirmishes. and was in the battles of Brandy-wine and Germantown, and served to the end of his enlistment

enlistment being two years when he was Honorably discharged at the encampment of the 21 Mile Stone above Philad^a by General Stephenson, just before said Stephenson was cashiered for cowardice shewn by him at the battle of Germantown —— Urged by the most extreme necessity being in indigent, and indeed even distressed circumstances — unable towork, and noperson towork for him, with a wife and five female children & three small boys incumbent on him, therefore he particularly stands in need of assistance from his Government for support

Your petitioner most respectfully begs that his name may be inscribed on the Invalid pension list roll of the United States authorised by a recent act of Congress, passed for the benefit of the Officers, Soldiers &c, &c of the revolutionary army —— And further your petitioner declares on oath as aforesaid that he knows noperson in the western country except his brother Philip Rice whom he could bring before these presents acquainted with his revolutionary services — and that he your petitioner is not in the habit of receiving, nor ever has received any pension from the United States.

All of which is respectfully submitted

Attest.
John Payne

James Rice

Schedule.

1st Judicial District of Kentucky
Nicholas County & Circuit } Sct.

On this 30th day of July 1820 personally appeared in open Court (being a Court of record for the County aforesaid expressly made so by the laws of the State which created it and having the power of fine and imprisonment) James Rice aged about sixty Eight years a resident of said County and Circuit who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the provisions made by the acts of Congress of the 18th March 1818. and the 1st of May 1820. That he the said James Rice enlisted for the term of two years in the month of October in the year of our Lord 1775 in the Coun
of King William and at King William Courthou
State of Virginia in the Company Commande by Capt Holt Richardson of the Regiment commanded by Colo Spotts wood, being as he think the 7th Virginia Regiment on the Continental esta blishment that he continued to serve in said corps or in the service of the United States for the said two years of enlistment when in the mon of October in the year of 1777 he was discharg from the said service at the twenty five mile stone on the Philadelphia road in the State of Pennsylvania by Col. McClanahan then Com manding the Regiment, he said Rice then belonging to Capt. Reubin Lipscomes company, that he was in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown and in several skirmishes and that he has no other evidence of his said services except the testimony of Philip R. Rice and Joseph Franklin who have both sworn to his said James Rices aforesaid services, and their oaths are attached to his original declaration, and in pursuance of the act of the 1st of May 1820 I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not since that time by gift, sale or in any manner disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an act of Congress entitled an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval services of the United States in the Revolutionary war "passed on the 18th day of March 1818 - and that I have not, nor has any person for me in trust any property or securities, contracts or debts due to me nor have I any income other than what is contained in the schedule hereto annexed and by me subscribed viz:

Land I have none I have one horse worth $20.00
one cow one yearling both together worth 14.50 two grown hogs worth $4.50. & 15 small shoats each 12.93

1 old gun - - - - -	4. 00
This is all. I owe about $2.33 - has	$ 68. 81¼ about $1.05 due me leaves $1.28 in debt.

And be it further remembered that the said James Rice swears in open Court as aforesaid that he has no trade, that he has living with him a wife aged between forty five and forty seven a very weakly woman and shortsighted and much afflicted with a violent cough and a son named Michael about twelve years old in good health at present, a daughter named Anetta about 9 years old a good deal troubled with the Reumatism, Betsy about seven or eight years old, Cornelius between five & six years old, Parthena about three years old, these children collectively are more an incumbrance than otherwise as before stated I am myself about sixty eight years of age diseased with a settled pain in my right side, and a [illegible] or Daly accessorally of my wicked body; I have to add that I am capable of following laboring altogether unable do diseases &c.

Samuel Rice

I Adam Beatty sole Judge of the Mason Circuit Court certify that the foregoing Schedule and declaration were sworn to by Samuel Rice in open Court, the same being a Court of Record expressly so constituted by law & that satisfactory proof by a disinterested witness was also produced, as to the correctness of the schedule and that the same is a just and faithful list and valued of said Rices property. Given under my hand as Judge aforesaid this 30th Aug 1823.

A. Beatty

Kentucky Mason Circuit Sct. I John Payne Clerk of the Court for the Circuit aforesaid do hereby certify, that the foregoing Oath also the schedule thereto annexed, are truly copied from the record of the said Court; and I do further certify that it is the opinion of said Court that the total amount in value of the foregoing scheduled is sixty eight dollars eighty one and a fourth cents — a native of that county, and his wife who bore the maiden name of Polly Jenkins, was also of Virginian stock. He died during the childhood of John Goodwin, father of our subject. The latter was born in 1830, and spent his entire life in Roanoke county, his occupation being that of farming. He married Elizabeth Gaines, also a native of Roanoke county, and a daughter of Major Kemper Gaines, who served with distinction as an officer in the war of 1812. Her brother, Thomas Gaines, was a soldier of the Mexican war and a commissioned officer in the Civil war. He died in Clarksville, Texas. Mrs. Goodwin's grandfather, Colonel Gaines, was one of the heroes of the Revolutionary war. It will thus be seen that her family has been well represented in the wars of his county. Her grandfather was a native of Scotland and located in Virginia at a very early day.

History of Woodford Co., IL

Our subject was the fifth in order of birth in a family of seven children, the others being as follows: Thomas P., and C. E., both residents of Salem, Virginia; Anna, wife of George Kern; Laura V., wife of E. M. Gross; Zella, wife of Robert Sears; and Kemper. With exception of our subject all make their home in Salem, Virginia.

In the county of his nativity J. B. Goodwin grew to manhood, his education being obtained in its public schools. In early life he learned the carpenter's trade, but later gave his attention to carpentering an engineering, continuing to follow those occupations in Virginia until 1885, when he came west and settled in Roanoke, Illinois. Here he was employed as engineer at the tile factory for two years, and then returned to carpenter work, which he followed in Roanoke and vicinity until the spring of 1897, when he took charge of the Roanoke electric light plant for Isaac Snyder and has since run it. He has also had the management of a gristmill for Mr. Snyder.

On the 3rd of March, 1892, Mr. Goodwin was united in marriage with Miss Mayme L. Hollenback, a daughter of Samuel Hollenback, who lives near Belle Plaine, Woodford county. Politically Mr. Goodwin is a stanch supporter of the Democratic party, and socially is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. He is widely and favorably known and during his residence in Roanoke has made many warm friends.

ALEXANDER HAWK.

Among the leading and influential farmers and stock raisers of Linn township, Woodford county, who thoroughly understand their business, and pursue the vocation of their chosen calling in a methodical and workmanlike manner, is the subject of this biography. He resides on section 11, and owns a well improved and highly cultivated farm of one hundred and twenty acres.

A native of Illinois, Mr. Hawk was born in Tazewell county, September 5, 1845, and is a son of Philip and Sarah (Kerr) Hawk, both natives of Brown county, Ohio, the former born in 1816, the latter in 1815. His paternal grandfather, John Hawk, a soldier of the war of 1812, died about 1825, when Philip was only nine years old, and the maternal grandfather, ——— Kerr, died in 1818, when the mother of our subject was but three. The parents were reared and educated in their native county, and there they were united in marriage. In 1844 they came to Illinois and first settled in Tazewell county, where the father purchased land and followed farming for ten years. At the end of that time he came to Woodford county, and from the unbroken prairie developed a fine farm, owning at the time of his death two hundred and forty acres. During the '70s he speculated in land and was quite successful. He died at his home in Linn township, in 1898, after a residence there of forty-one years. In politics he was a Democrat, but took no active part in political affairs, though he always gave his support to any enterprise calculated to prove of public benefit.

Our subject is the second in order of birth in a family of eight children, all of whom reached years of maturity. The others were as follows: John, born in Ohio, served four years as a soldier of the Civil war, an died on the old homestead in Linn township, in 1876. Minerva is living on the home farm. Mary wedded William Hopwood, and died at the age of twenty-two years, leaving one daughter, Lillie, now the wife of Isaac Black. Sarah married Samuel Whitmore, of Roanoke township, Woodford county, and died at the age of twenty-five years, leaving one son, John, now a resident of California. James is living in Linn township. Maria L. lives on the old homestead. Flora is the wife of Samuel Robinson, of Cazenovia township, Woodford county. The children were all educated in the district school near their early home.

Alexander Hawk attended school both in Tazewell and Woodford counties, and under the direction of his father acquired an excellent knowledge of every department of farm work. He remained under the parental roof until he was married, in October, 1866, to Miss Hatie Van Buskirk, a native of Marshall county, Illinois, by whom he had three children, but all died in childhood. The wife and mother died in May, 1871. They lived for a time in Clayton township, Woodford county, and then returned to Linn township, where her death occurred. After the death of his wife Mr. Hawk lived with his parents for three years. In 1874 he was married again, his second union being with Miss Mary Whiten, who was born in Tazewell county, December 31, 1850, and is the fourth in order of birth in a family of six children, two sons and four daughters. Her parents are both deceased. Of the four children born to Mr. and Mrs. Hawk, Charles died in 1887, at the age of ten years, and William died in 1888, at the age of nine. Philip, the eldest of the family, married Daisy Perry, and have one daughter, Marian. He lives with his father and assists in the operation of the farm. He attended college in Bloomington an Eureka, taking a business and commercial course. Grace, the only daughter, received a good high-school education, and is now successfully teaching in the district schools.

In 1874 Mr. Hawk made his first purchase of land, consisting of eighty acres in Linn township, to which he has since added a forty-acre tract, all of which has been improved by him. He has tiled and fenced the land and erected thereon good modern buildings. He operates two hundred acres of land in connection with general farming and engages in stock raising, to which he formerly devoted most of his time and attention. In political sentiment he is a Democrat, but at local elections votes for the man and not the party. He has filled the offices of collector and assessor, and at present is serving as school treasurer of his township. As a public-spirited and progressive citizen he takes a commendable interest in any enterprise tending to advance the moral, social or material welfare of his community. Religiously both he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal church.

TJARK EILTS.

Tjark Eilts, agent for the Henning Brewing Company, of Mendota, Illinois, for the city of Minonk, is a native of Hanover, Germany, his birth having occurred July 9, 1843. He accompanied his parents, L. E. and E. K. Eilts, to the United States in 1856, and for sixty-four days was tossed to and fro upon the broad Atlantic. Coming direct to Illinois, the family located in Peoria, where the father worked at various pursuits. Our subject had attended the public schools in his native land prior to his emigration, and after becoming a resident of this republic it was not his privilege to devote much time to his education while he was young. The father is still living, and on the 12th of March, 1900, passed the eighty-third anniversary of his birth. The mother died in August, 1899, when about eighty-two years old. They have been identified with the German Lutheran church for many years, and their lives have been noble and worthy of praise, in every respect. To their children they leave the priceless heritage of an untarnished name and record. Margaret, the eldest daughter, is the wife of Peter Wuebbens, and resides near Flannigan, Illinois, and John J. and Tjamde are unmarried and living with their father.

Tjark Eilts, as the eldest son and mainstay of his parents, remained with them and assisted in the support of the family until he was nearly thirty years of age. For six years thereafter he was actively engaged in farming, and eighteen years ago he embarked in his present line of business. For a score of years he has been a citizen of Minonk, which has grown rapidly, and, though he is not a politician, he does his duty as a patriot, and performs his full share of the obligations devolving upon him, as a voter and inhabitant of a prosperous republic. His business ability is beyond question, and that his firm appreciates his services on its behalf is shown by the long period of his connection with the one house.

On the 12th of July, 1873, Mr. Eilts married Miss Imke Cordsen, daughter of Jacob and Renoldt Cordsen, both of whom died when she was a young child. E. Catherina, the first-born of our subject and wife, became the wife of Otto Klatt, and their only child bears the name of Otillie. Jacob E., the eldest son of Tjark Eilts, married Mary Vosberg. He resides at Minonk and is now in his father's employ. The younger members of the paternal family include Irena A. and Villamena E.; John J., who died at the age of twenty-eight months; Annie T., who attends school; Matilda, who died when twenty-seven months old, one who died unnamed, and John J., now eight years of age.

G. M. SIMPSON.

In the activities of the present age, we, the heirs of generations of brave, hardy pioneers who led the way for civilization, by going forth into the untrodden western wildernesses and there "enduring all things, suffering all things," are too apt to think lightly or seldom of the debt of gratitude

JAMES RICE

Virginia Service; Pension File No. S 40332; Pension Certificate No. 19,046 for $8 per month under the Act of Congress March 18, 1818.

To the Honorable the Secretary of War of the United States.

On oath administered to him according to law, before the Honorable the Circuit court of Bracken, State of Kentucky, on this 7th day of July, 1818, the petition of -

JAMES RICE, a citizen of said county and state, aged 63 years, most respectfully represents that, being desirous of serving his country in her struggles for independence, all that lay in his power, he joined the Army of the United States by voluntary enlistment in July 1775 for two years at King William Court House under Captain Holt Richardson of Colonel Spotswood's Regiment, being the 7th Virginia Regiment on Continental Establishment*23, Gl. Woodford's Brigade, from the Rendezvous was ordered with said Richardsons company to Williamsburg, Va, then commanded by Col. Spotswood.

The first action engaged in was in the driving of Dunmore from Guinn's [Gwynn] Island, after this, encamped at Paint top [?] on the Rappahannock River until Oct. following, thence ordered with the whole of the command to York Town, Virginia, where he performed garrison duty a few weeks only, when he was remanded to Williamsburgh, where he, with the rest of the Troops, stored his arms, ammunition &c in the United States Arsenal of that place,, thence ordered direct under Colonel Clanahan to take up winter quarters in Philadelphia, during which winter 175-76 [sic] was in several skirmishes, and was in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown, and served to the end of his enlistment, being two years, when he was honorably discharged at the encampment of the 20 mile Stone [or Stand?] above Philadelphia by General Stephenson just before Stevenson was cashiered for cowardice shown by him at the battle of Germantown.

Urged by the most extreme necessity, being in indigent, and indeed even distressed circumstances -- unable to work, and no person to work for him, with a wife and five female children and three small boys incumbent on him, therefore he particularly stands in need of assistance from his Government for support.*22

Your petitioner most respectfully begs that his name may be inscribed on the Invalid pension Rolls of the United States, authorized by a recent act of Congress passed for the benefit of the officers, soldiers &c of the revolutionary army. And further your petitioner declares on oath as aforesaid that he knows no person in the western country, except his brother, Philip Rice, whom he could bring before these presents acquainted with his revolutionary services -- and that he, your petitioner, is not in the habit of receiving nor ever has received any pension from the United States.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Attest:
John Payne JAMES RICE *36

[The above affidavit was made in Open Court at the Court House in Augusta, Bracken County, Kentucky, before Adam Beatty, Circuit Judge. William Logan, Deputy Sheriff of the county, stated that James Rice was in indigent circumstances. Philip Rice declared that James Rice was in the Continental Army*23 for two years.]

SCHEDULE. 1st Judicial District of Kentucky, Bracken County Circuit -}-

On this 30th day of July, 1820, personally appeared in open Court, (being a Court of record for the County aforesaid expressly made so by the laws of the State which created it and having the power of fine and imprisonment), -

JAMES RICE

JAMES RICE, aged about 68 years, a resident of said County and Circuit, who, being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the provisions made by the acts of Congress of the 18th March 1818 and the 1st of May 1820.*8

That he, the said James Rice, enlisted for the term of two years in the month of October in the year of our Lord 1775 in the County of King William and at King William Courthouse, State of Virginia in the company commanded by Capt. Holt Richardson of the Regiment commanded by Col. Spottswood, being, as he thinks, the 7th Virginia Regiment on the continental establishment, that he continued to serve in said corps or in the service of the United States for the said two years of enlistment, when, in the month of October in the year of 1777 he was discharged from the said service at the twenty-five mile stone on the Philadelphia road in the State of Pennsylvania by Col. McClanahan, then commanding the Regiment, the said Rice then belonging to Capt. Reuben Lipscomes company, that he was in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown and in several skirmishes, and that he has no other evidence of his said services except the testimony of Philip R. Rice and Joseph Franklin, who have both sworn to his, said James Rice's aforesaid services, and their oaths are attached to his original declaration.

And in pursuance of the act of the 1st of May 1820, I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March 1818, and that I have not since that time, by gift, sale or in any manner, disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an act of Congress entitled an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval services of the United States in the Revolutionary War passed on the 18th day of March 1818. And that I have not, nor has any person for me in trust, any property or securities, contracts, or debts due to me, nor have I any income other than what is contained in the Schedule hereto annexed and by me subscribed, viz

Land I have none I have one horse worth $20.00; one cow & one yearling both together worth $14.50; two grown hogs worth $4.50 & 15 small shoats $12.93; 4 head of sheep at $1.12 1/2 each $4.50; 1 plough worth $1.37 1/2, 1 old mattock @ $1 $2.37 1/2; 1 old axe worth 62 1/2, 5 old chairs @ .25 $1.87 1/2; 1 small old square table @ $1.50; 2 old pewter dishes worth $1.00; 7 pewter plates*11 worth $1.75, 5 knives & 5 forks $2.50; 1 small pot 62 1/2, 5 earthen plates 62 1/2 $1.25; 1 set of tea cups & saucers $.87 1/2; 1 grind stone $1.50; 1 old gun*11 $4.00; Total $68.81 1/4. This is all. I owe about $2.33, has about $1.05 due me leaves $1.28 in Debt.

And be it further rembered that the said James Rice swears in Open Court as aforesaid that he has no trade, that he has living with him a wife, aged between forty-five and forty-seven a very weakly woman shortsighted and much afflicted with a violent cough, and a son named Michael about twelve years old in good health at present, a daughter named Arietta about 9 years old a good deal troubled with the Reumatism, Betsy about seven or eight years old, Cornelius between five & six years old, Parthena about three years old, these children collectively are more an incumbrance than otherwise as before stated I am myself about sixty-eight years of age diseased with a settled pain in my right side, and a tremour or palsy occasionally of my whole body. I have not, nor am I capable of following labouring altogether under a diseased body.

Adam Beatty, Judge Bracken Circuit Court. JAMES RICE

[On the 4th day of December, 1820, James Rice filed another declaration in Bracken County, re-stating most of the information given in his previous applications, being more specific as to the lengths of time served.*16 At this time, Robert Walton vouched for James Rice's Revolutionary service and his need of financial assistance. On the 3rd day of July, 1821, Joseph Franklin also vouched for Rice's service in an affidavit filed in Mason County, Kentucky, adding that he thought that Spotswood was but a Major at the time Rice enlisted.]

JAMES RICE

A LETTER Minerva, Mason County, Ky. Feb. 12, 1823
To the Honorable Thomas Metcalfe:

I have the honor of now having before me your favour of the 11th January as likewise the forms that were in the same Packett. I want first wish to call your attention to a Packett of papers that Mr. Graham directed to the Care of Mr. Vanzandt some 11 or 12 months ago, which Pakett Contained the Last Roll of Thomas Brashears', James Browning's, & as well as I can Recollect, Mr. Rice's Schedules, and about the same time was sent to same, a Land Warrant in favour of Charles Chinn, for which there is no pattent ever came to hand, as I had bought & paid for the Pattent, I feel, of course, Interested. therefore I hope you will aid me in finding out wheather or not such Pattent was ever issued.

After I received your letter I wrote to Mr. Rice and he produced his Schedule*45 before the County Court of Mason, it being in the 1st Judicial District wherein he lives & made oath & proved the same to the satisfaction of sd Court &c. his object in coming before the Mason Cty Court as stated by him is that the Court in Bracken County does not come on until the 4 Monday in this month Consequently he coud not have availd him self of an oppertunity of haveing his name placed on the Pention Roll before next Sept., but under Present Circumstances he hopes, with your aid & the schedule lastly made out, in addition to the first, he will Certainly have it on by the 4th of March next. The last Schedule is not in as good form as the first on account of their not being one man in the Neighbourhood Capebl of drawing up a propper form, but as Mr. Rice had spoken to me to assist him in place of Capt. Graham Decd & insisting on my attention to his business, I this day attended at the Clerks office in Washington in his place, & finding that his original Schedule was in the office I have had it Coppied & Enclosd with the Last, it being as I have above stated, in better form than the Last.

The old Gentleman wishes you to pay that attention to his business thats due to an old Soldier, which he dont hesitate to says he knows you will, from his List of propperty Last January I find he is going down hill, In fact he says he has had Liberal advancements from his friends in money, with a View of paying of them when he received his Pention, & if he dont git his business adjusted soon, his Creditors will Close in on his Little Propperty & take his all, as they have some of them already begin to threaten him. If there shoud be any fault found in the first Schedule, & the Last, as to their not Corroberating in Every Statement I hope you will from your Knoledge of old age, try and not let it be an obstacle. I see none in the most important facts, but a Little in the age of himself & Wife, but the old man is quite in his doteage, & infact, if there is not a propper Record Kept of such things, as peeples ages it will slip the memory of 10 out of 15. So I hope the present papers may answer Every purpose, but I have thought that the precidering Magistrates name shoud have been subscribed to the Papers &c. I am with respect your obdt Servant.

E. W. Hotton

ANOTHER LETTER: Dated August 4th, 1823, Minerva, Mason County, Kentucky.

In this letter, Mr. Hotton re-states the situation explained in the above verbatim letter, adding, in part:

"Mr. Rice's services have been proven to the full satisfaction of the County, and his claim for pention & his services have doubtless been proven to the satisfaction of the War Department as appears from Letters written to H. R. Graham on that Subject, so that Mr. Rice has every reason to expect his certificate from the acknowledgment as aforesaid & the present papers herewith enclosed. He hopes that the Honorable Secretary of War will have his name placed on the Pention List Roll by the 4th of this insueing September & he further hopes that his pay will take Rise from the date of his original declaration. Mr. Rice states that he first employed Capt. H. R. Graham to investigate his Claim and that it was always Capt. Graham's opinion that if the applicant made oath to the Schedule of his propperty before any Court within the District wherein the applicant Resided, it was a fulfilment of the Law, but he appears to have been mistaken, in Consequence of which Mr. Rice's Claim appears to have been Lingering between hope & dispair for several years, now sir, [or, now six?], from the Knoledge that I have of Mr. Rice, in Conjunction with the Report of his Neighbours, I think that he inevitably stands in great Kneed of the assistance of Government. and he appears to place full confidence in that Country, which he once Liberally supported in the toils of War, for that Charity that is due from the Honorable Secretary, to a brave & faithful Soldier*37. the old gentleman thinks it would be ungenerous to curtail his Claim on account of his having been misled by those whom he had employed to obtain his certificate, especially when it was not a designing error. You will herewith find enclosed his schedule &c, which will no doubt meet with ample Justice it is true that the sooner you can Relieve him from his troubles of mind respecting his Claim, the better, for his decribbed [sic] situation & the --illegible- of his little affairs, renders the old man very unhappy. from Every appearance, he says he calculates that the Constable will light on him soon and sweep away the Little Effects which he has now in possession. If you grant the certificate, Mr. Rice wishes you to forward it on to me in Minerva as soon as possible, which shall be immediately handed over to him. Enoch W. Hotten"

[The Certificate of Pension, No. 19,046, was finally issued on September 5, 1823 and forwarded to Enoch W. Hotton at Minerva, Kentucky. The pension was to commence only in July, 1823, however; why it was not retroactive to 1818 is not clear, as many of them were.

Ten years later, on the 7th day of October, 1833, James Rice made an affidavit in Brown County, Ohio, requesting that his pension be paid there, as he planned to live there in Franklin Township. He stated his reasons for moving from Kentucky to Ohio: "He owned no land in Kentucky and his son Philip agreed to give him a small tract of land and build him a house to live in during his life -- his wife and family were also desirous to move to Ohio."

In September, 1835, James Rice's widow, Mary Rice, came into CLERMONT COUNTY Court and made an affidavit that her husband had died. She stated that he had lived in Clermont County 'five or six months next before his death, and died on the 30th day of April, 1835.' (See CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO REVOLUTIONARY WAR VETERANS, VOL. I, 1990 by Aileen M. Whitt.) However, no record of this September, 1835, affidavit is filed in the National Archives, indicating that Mary Rice never did receive a pension as his widow.]

Caveat.

A Warrant was Issued to John H. Lucas, for 160 Acres for Services in Company "G" Captains S. W. Johnson and C. B. White, in the Reg. Commanded by Col Mitchell, in the Ohio, volunteers in the Mexican War, of 1846-7.

I can not give you the exact date or number of said Warrant, but know that he received a Warrant for said Service in said Company.

John H. Lucas in his lifetime, made application for a Land Warrant for Services in Capt Faynes Co in the (Black Hawk) in March 1851, he made application for Land for said Service, and before said Warrant No. 34,816 for "40 A." issued, the said John H Lucas died, leaving Arritta his widow, On the 9 of January 1852, the warrant Came, = But previously to that in April 1851 the said Arritta Lucas as widow, had filed her Declaration, setting forth the fact that her husband was dead &c, No warrant was issued on said application. I soon after Learned that her husband in his lifetime had received a Warrant for 160 A. for his Mexican Service, which I supposed precluded the issue. So told the widow = I understand that in April last, the warrant No 34,816 has been returned, asking for a Warrant for 160 A. for the Black Hawk services, &c.

Please say wither my conclusions are wright or wrong.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT

If you haven't renewed your membership for the 1988 year, this will be the last issue of our Newsletter being mailed to you. So, just a reminder that you will be missing alot of "goings on" if you do not renew.

We do realize that sometimes members have found all that they need or give up when they cannot find the name or date, anyway we will miss you and hope that you will stop and see us and drop us a line and let us know how you are doing in your Genealogy.

We want to thank all that joined last year and for the renewals that we have received this year. We are planning more publications and hope to continue to print in the newsletter records that will be of value to you.

Again, don't forget to mail your membership in the next few weeks.

My genealogy is for pleasure and to aid in research only. The information is from various sources and is correct to the best of my knowledge, but please verify before assuming it is completely accurate. Any corrections are greatly appreciated. Most families are related but unrelated names were added as I tried to link them with mine, or to aid people in their research. I cannot always answer each e-mail because of the daily volume, so check back for updates and share as much info as possible with inquiries.

Saw your query in Br. Co., Oh newsletter. Hope not to confuse you with the data below. I am a Springer, Prickett, Rice desendant and worked any Rice's who came to Br. Co,Oh (will be BC,O below). Garrard Co, Ky (will be GC,K below). References come from GC,K deeds, inventories, marriage records, Springer newsletter July 1998 and a 64 page document on the Rice's with around 200 references.

Benjamin Rice b. ca 1750's d. 1799 GC,K M. ca 1770's Mary (believed to be nee Burke) (she m. 2nd 5 May 1805 GC,K bdsman Benjamin Rice as 3rd wf to Nathan Springer, no chn) When Benjamin dies his widow Mary and son Benjamin are given power to sell the land. She d, 1830 IN & Nathan Springer returned to BC,O.and d. there 2 Jan 1831.
chn:
1. Wm b ca 1777 d. ca 1 Apr 1826 BC,O when the overseers of the poor were to take over and care for the widow and chn. Wm was declared insane. BC, O probate ct rec. #7796 no burial found. He m. 22 Sep 1805 GC,K bdsman Thompson Burke to Sarah Springer b. 1 Sep 1777 Fayette Co, Pa d. 28 Sep 1852 ae 75 yrs.BC, O bur. St. Crk Bapt. Cem. (d/o Nathan Springer & 1st wf Hannah McDaniel)

2. Benjamin b ca 1779 ae 21 on 1800 tax rec. GC,K.

3.Elizabeth b. ca 178? m. 16 Jun 1808 GC,K bdsman Thompson Burke to Jesse Burton

4.Amelia (Milly) b. 29 Feb 1789 Va d. 28 Mar 1851 BC,O ae 62-1-0 bur. St. Crk. Bapt. Cem., Franklin Twp.,BC,O. m. 15 Jan 1805 GC,K permission her mother Mary, states father dec'd, bdsman Nathan Springer to Elisha Hudson Dennis (s/o Elisha Dennis & Elizabeth Hudson) b. ca 1784 Va d. 1823 GC,K .bur. same. In 1825 Mary and her 7 chn moved to BC,O. Her will names all chn. and I've worked them all plus have the 6 chn of Elisha Dennis.

I'm sure there were more chn but those above are the proven ones. Nathan Springer, Anderson Rice, Charles Spelman and Benjamin Perkins Feb 1805 GC,K Ct. Rec. they were to set apart the right of dower of the widow and relict of Benjamin Rice dec'd. Inventory GC,K 2 July 1799 of Benjamin Rice dec'd lists a negro slave named Sam who Nathan Springer sells in 1808 Deed bk. C:336.

Note James Rice also had a wf Mary and were in Mercer Co, Ky their descendants went to Livingston Co, Ky as did she.

Two others are possibly Catharine Rice b ca 179? m. 30 June 1814 Adams Co, Oh Wm. Prickett b. 29 Aug 1794 Va d. 1864 Grant Co,IN (s/o John B. Prickett & Elizabeth Hayes)
Lucinda "Lucy" Rice b. 16 Sep 1796 d. 16 Sep 1871 Grant Co, IN m. 27 Nov 1813 Adams Co, Oh James Prickett b.28 Feb 1791 Monongalia Co, Va d.7 Apr 1871 Grant Co, IN (s/o as above).

James b.ca 1750's is a s/o Mathew (as is Benjamin thought to be) also had wf Mary.His dau Nancy Jane Rice b. 10 Aug 1773 Prince Edward C., VA m. 1787 Benjamin F. Spilman who d. 15 Sep 1851 Hillsborough, IL. They had 13 chn. This James lived mostly in Mercer Co, Ky.

James b.ca 1779 Va m. Polly England I don't know who he is.

In the Prickett Newsletter July 1998 a letter from Paul Martin Lake has a note written by Thomas Prickett (s/o Wm. who was a s/o Wm. & Catharine (Rice) Prickett) states Catherine's mother was Mary Burke who mar. 1st ___ Rice & 2nd Nathan Prickett.

Let me know what you think.

> Source: Franklin Township History, by S.C. Gordon M.D.
> Robinson Lucas moved from Viginia to Kentucky, came from Kentucky and settled near the Ohio River, at Cornick's Run, with William Long, Uriah Springer and James Prickett. We are informed his sons, William and John, came over a week before the rest of the family and built the first shanty ever built at t > he mouth of Red Oak Creek, and when the family arrived, they had twenty-one bears killed and hung to the trees around the shanty. After living here a short time, Mr. Lucas came up Straight Creek and settled on the farm now owned by Huston Rhoten, where he died and is buried.
> There were born to Robinson Lucas and his wife nineteen children, fifteen living to grow up, viz., Temperance, Elizabeth, William, John, Jacob, Drucilla, Mary, Cynthia, Anna, Isaiah, Isaac, Sarah, Robert, Rhoda and James--the last two born after their parents came here.
